Affair

One of the many entertaining features of the Physical Education Exhibition, to be given in the Alumni gymnasium May 20, is the special musical numbers and accompaniment furnished by the university concert band. The concert band is a select group of 40 musicians that have been furnishing the enjoyable twilight concerts on the university campus. Under the direction of Elmer G. Sulzer, special musical arrangements that promise to add color and interest to the performance have been made for the coming exhibition.

The boxing, wrestling, and fencing number assures the audience of plenty of action. According to the program there will be 90 participants in these three activities, with a special feature of an individual boxing bout, wrestling match, and a select group of 40 musicians that have been furnishing the enjoyable twilight concerts on the university campus. Under the direction of Elmer G. Sulzer, special musical arrangements that promise to add color and interest to the performance have been made for the coming exhibition.

For those members of the audience that like their entertainment a little more refined than the boxing and wrestling matches offer, a costume dance by 30 girls of the university promises to be one of the most colorful and artistic parts of the program. The dance, a pirate dance, has been in the process of development for the past six weeks, and with the flashing costumes, colored lighting effects, and spectacular dancing should be unusually attractive, especially to the male members of the audience.

In addition to the dancing, the women students of the university are participating in an act of pyramid building and acrobatics with the men students. The pyramids are varied and complicated in construction and some include as many as 60 students, reaching almost to the steel girders in the basketball building and stretching the entire length of the gymnasium floor. Added to these group activities are many individual stunts and feats of skill, including juggling, balancing and acrobatics approaching the perfection of the professional performance.

Blue Ridge Camp Located
In Beautiful Carolina Site

North Carolina is called the "Land of the Sky," and those who have been there claim that the particular part of North Carolina in which Blue Ridge is situated is the worthy of that appellation and the other superlatives the name of Blue Ridge seems to call forth than any other part of the state. Vacationers become ecstatically enthusiastic when questioned about Blue Ridge as a vacation land. The same is true when those who have been employed there are asked about it as a place of employment.

Since Blue Ridge began employing exclusively men and women from colleges and universities in 1910, it has been offering to students a pleasant, instructive and useful way to spend the summer. Among those who go there to work preference is given to seniors and graduate students.

In the 22 years during which Blue Ridge has maintained this principle, five students from the

Boys' Camp Will Open June 27, and Will Last for 10 Days

Eight members of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. cabinets at the university have completed arrangements for attending the annual summer session of the organization at Blue Ridge, North Carolina. Those who are planning to make the trip from the Y. M. cabinet are John Carter, president of the cabinet; Robert Gilmore, past director of freshman work; Hugh Stewart, secretary; and Elwood Aarand. The Y. W. will be represented by Lois Neal, president of the Y. W. S. G. A.; Katherine Jones, president of the Y. W.; Mariana Lancaster, vice president; Polly Lee, publicity chairman; and Billie Madrox, chairman of the freshman cabinet.

The summer school will be divided into two sessions, the first for the girls and the second for the boys. Y. M. C. A. The first session will open June 7 and will continue until June 27, at which time the boys' camp will open and last for ten days. Bart Peak, secretary of the university Y. M. C. A., probably will attend, and Miss Augusta Roberts, secretary of the Y. W., will go also.

The Blue Ridge camp has been in operation since 1905. It first was started at Asheville, and later was moved to Black Mountain before being changed to the present location. The fourth quarter of the Y. M. C. A. graduate school at Nashville is held here in the summer in connection with the regular program of the college Y. cabinets. A special school for training presidents of the organization is held for six weeks during the summer.

The purpose of the training at Blue Ridge is to bring together the students of southern colleges and universities to give them inspirational training, and practical instruction which will be of benefit to them in the work which they will do in their respective schools.

The local charter was granted in 1926, and the University of Kentucky chapter now has an active membership of 40. Eligibility for faculty and graduate students is based on outstanding ability, while requirements for undergraduates are a general standing of 1.8 and standing in mathematics of 1.8.

The officers of the local chapter are Dr. H. H. Downing, president; Prof. M. C. Brown, vice-president; Dr. Elora LeSturgeon, secretary; Mr. W. F. Chambers, treasurer; and Prof. E. J. Canaday, librarian.

university have taken advantage of it. Karl Zerfass took the opportunity in 1915, and was so enthusiastic about the work that he persuaded Bart Peak, present secretary of the student Y. M. C. A. at the university, to go to the conference center for that purpose in 1916.

Others who have answered the call are Henry Gravens, Elise Bureau, and Tzvetan Nedelkoff. Elise Bureau has spent three summers at Blue Ridge.

In the neighborhood of 50 girls and 80 boys are given employment for the summer. Most of the boys come from the Y. M. C. A. graduate school at Nashville, Tenn. Those employed enroll in the training school at Blue Ridge for at least one class. Their work and classes fill the morning hours. In the afternoon they may attend the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. conferences and activities, or engage in any sport that suits their fancies, a wide variety being offered for their selection.

HACKENSMTTH IS HEAD

By SUNNY DAY
During the week of May 9, men have been qualifying for the intramural track and field events, the finals of which will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, May 14, on Stoll field. Competition this year is extremely keen, and some intramural records are due to fall. The rules of the intramural track and field meet are: (1) a contestant may enter in only two events and the relay, and (2) men attached to the varsity track squad or who have earned a "K" in track are ineligible.

Six men qualified in the 100 yard dash and the best time was :10.6 seconds. The men qualifying were: Harvey, A. T. O.; Blencoe, Delta Chi; Nicholson, A. T. O.; McGuire, K. A.; Goebel, Alpha Gamma Rho, and Congleton, Phi Kappa Tau. The record is :10.2, set by Heiber, Phi Kappa Tau, in 1930.

Several who qualified in the 100 also entered the 220 yard dash. The best time was 25 seconds, and the following six men qualified: Nicholson, A. T. O.; Alven, Sigma Chi; Blencoe, Delta Chi; Goebel, Alpha Gamma Rho; Cassidy, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Cleary, Delta Tau Delta. The record, set by Wallace, Independent, in 1931, is 23.4 seconds.

Likewise six men qualified in the 440 yard dash with the best time at 57 seconds. The following qualified: Liesenfelt, Phi Sigma Kappa; Martin, S. A. E.; Cleary, Delta Tau Delta; Cassidy, Pi Kappa Alpha; Spraker, Alpha Sigma Phi, and Eversole, Delta Tau Delta. The record was set by Wallace in 1931 at 53.2 seconds.

The men qualifying were: Brawner, Phi Kappa Tau; Taylor, Phi Delta Theta; Turnipseed, Phi Delta Theta; Croseley, Sigma Chi; Burns, Alpha Sigma Phi, and Baughman, K. A. "Scavenger" Roberts set the record for this event in 1929 with five feet 6 inches.

Hillen, Sigma Chi, achieved 21 feet, one and one-half inches in the broad jump. This is just one-fourth of an inch less than the record set by George Yates, S. A. E., in 1931. The other men who qualified were: Burns, Alpha Sigma Phi; Taylor, Phi Delta Theta; Harvey, A. T. O.; Browner, Phi Kappa Tau; and Thomas, Sigma Chi.

Humor Magazine
Will Be Continued.
Fraternity Decides

The publication of The Kampus Kat, university funny magazine, sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi, and edited by William Shafer, will not be discontinued, members of the sponsoring group decided yesterday at a meeting held in the Journalism department.

Numerous changes were decided upon by the group and the book will be issued Friday, May 20 and will be the last issue of the current school year. Work on the final edition is being completed and the copy will be in the hands of the printer, Monday, Shafer announced.

Decision to continue the work was decided upon after the members had protested to the faculty because of too vigorous censorship. Members of the fraternity desired to publish the magazine with the same scope of content as could be found in other college magazines.

"The Kampus Kat is the only college humor book published in the state and the desire to have the state represented in that field moved the members to decide to continue the publication. The editor of next year's Kat will be Marvin Wachs.

The Kentucky Kernel

BLUE RIDGE

Today's issue of The Kernel has been designated as the Blue Ridge edition, featuring the annual Y. M. C. A. gathering held at Blue Ridge, North Carolina. The Kernel does this because it feels that recreation should be given to so important and influential an institution as this annual event.

The gathering at Blue Ridge aims toward the thorough development of youth. Classes are held in which boys are instructed in leadership and good citizenship. Boys from all over the country, most of them leaders in their local Y. M. C. A. organizations, attend the conference and take back with them new ideas as well as a new inspiration for work in their own communities. Along with the classes is given a varied program of recreational activities, designed to furnish the boys with the highest type of fun as well as with healthful exercise. A youth seldom returns from Blue Ridge without bringing back glowing accounts of the good times, the natural beauty of the place, the wealth of good fellowship, and all the other adjuncts of camp life.

Too much cannot be said of the work of the Y. M. C. A. Its activities fill a place in the life of the boys of this country that no other similar organization even endeavors to reach. In cities, in the small towns wherever organized, it fills the universal need of boys for fellowship and guidance. The gathering at Blue Ridge is perhaps its best known and most representative activity.

KERNEL QUESTIONNAIRE

That university students really are thinking about outstanding issues of the day and giving serious consideration to their solutions is shown by the results of the questionnaire published by The Kernel recently. Such questions as the necessity of the home as a social institution marriage as an institution, companionate marriage, divorce, and governmental problems were answered in most cases positively, by a representative number of students.

Interesting to note is the fact that a almost every case of a majority on either side of a question it was convincing one rather than a narrow one. In some cases the vote was almost equally divided, in every case there was a certain percentage undecided. Even in the last instance, however, indication is made that the majority was in the affirmative.

And the fact worthy of note is that the majority of the students who answered the questionnaire are taking their first year in college. This is a fact which indicates that the majority of the students who are interested in the question are the ones who are just beginning their college career.

DOTES AND ANTI-DOTES

By CRAIG VAN DRUTEN

With all apologies to "Seen-from-the-Press-Box" Johnson, we reprint from Tuesday's columns: Messrs. Ralph Johnson, Nicholas Chepeleff, Angelo Tomasulo, Tzvetan Nedelkoff, and Wildan Thomas had as week-end guests Messrs. Michael Kaschak and Casimir Bryeshinsky. Just another reason why society editors go crazy.

Asked of a Kentucky delegate attending a Pittsburg convention: "I don't mean to be funny, but is it actually true that the women down there are really beautiful?"

Another Pittsburg gentleman suggested that he always associated Kentucky with Colonels, race horses, and mint juleps.

A T. O.'s are beginning to believe in the business depression. Asked why he pledged with the Limestone boys, a fledgling wearer of the stars and crescent intimated that his father's boss is a member of the lodge.

Deltaw Willie Haag, looking askance at the pecuniary inhibitions of one of his brothers remarked that the gentleman "is so tight that every time he winks his knee caps bob up and down."

"Made-to-measure" service for business

Whether the business is small or large—the corner grocery or the refrigerator factory—requirements for telephone service vary. So, to meet special conditions, Bell System men custom-fit the service to the subscriber. They worked out a telephone conference plan for a large manufacturer. Every Friday, specified times, each district manager calls the home office, where telephone facilities are so arranged that the chief sales executives are on the line simultaneously. Problems are discussed, decisions given. In minutes, the executives cover the country. This plan lowered selling costs, raised efficiency, helped the user to increase profits 31% in a year's time.

By making the telephone more useful, Bell System men contribute to the success of many industries.

Hankes Appointed Law Journal Editor

Francis Hankes, Lexington junior in the College of Law, has been appointed managing editor of the Kentucky Law Journal for the scholastic year 1932-33. Hankes is a member of Phi Delta Phi, professional law fraternity, and Phi Sigma Kappa social fraternity. As managing editor of the journal he will have complete charge of the publication of the proceedings of the Kentucky State Bar association to be published the first week of August as the fifth issue of the journal.

WILL RUN 20 MILES

Rotors, similar to squirrel cages to which meters are attached, have shown at the University of Michigan museums that an active field mouse will run 100,000 feet, or about 20 miles, in a night. Dr. Lee R. Rice, curator, has assembled 3,000 deer mice, ordinarily known as field mice, to study inheritance of racial features. Color, size, tail length and ear size are being studied with their relation to behavior and resistance to disease.

Blue Ridge Blues -by Craddock

By JOHNNIE CRADDOCK
You have always wanted to spend an evening in Caroline. Well, here's your chance. Blue Ridge, that's the word. That's the place—the place where they gather from the four corners of the South to revel in historic charm, romance, and recreation. It's the ideal place to retreat from the metropolis of busy streets, automobiles, and clanging street car bells. It is also a good place to forget broken love affairs, bad grades, and the depression.

If you don't like to listen to good speakers, slip away and play tennis, ride horseback, climb mountains, paddle a canoe, or do one of the thousand-and-one other things they do at Blue Ridge. You can even go snipe hunting, but it won't do any good for all the snipes got run over by a freight train and killed. Just climb one of those mountains and look out over the world below. What a panorammy—boy what a panorammy! People fight to see it. You wouldn't miss a fight would you? Here's how you do it. The women's conference opens June 7, and closes June 16. The men's conference is from June 17 to June 27. Pack your toothbrush and let's go, 'cause I've got those Blue Ridge mountain blues. Call the Y. W. C. A. or the Y. M. C. A. and get the inside dope on the secret to better health, better times, and bigger ice cream cones.

In Division 1 In Division 2 Alpha Tau Omega beat Delta Tau Delta after a tight contest. The winner of Division 3 will be decided between the Alpha Sigma Phi and the Phi Tau this afternoon.

These six teams are requested to send their intramural managers to the intramural office this afternoon at 4 o'clock to draw for places in the final championship elimination contest which will begin May 16. There will be two byes and this necessitates drawing for places.

Barnyard Golf

There are six men left in the horseshoe pitching shuffle. They are: Cullen, Phi Sig; Wersch, A. T. O.; Banks, S. A. E.; Angelucci, A. T. O.; Coffman, Delta Tau Delta, and Endicott, Delta Tau Delta. Endicott and Wersch gave the boys some trouble last fall, and hid fair to run to the front this time. The next rounds are due Saturday.

In the doubles Clark and Jefferson, Sigma Chis, and Blekel and Wersch, A. T. O. are in the doubles and will play for the crown today or tomorrow.

Golf and the Weather

In spite of the inclement weather, golf matches have been played off regularly at the Pledome course. Jack Kirk, S. A. E., looks like a winner, but Anderson, Independent, T. Culter, A. T. O., Alsover, Phi Kappa Alpha, and Rens, Phi Kappa Tau, may hinder his steady march toward the twosome cup.

Haggard, Kappa Alpha who won the foursome with Luening in 1930, has found an equally good partner in Steel. These two boys have fought their ways to the finals, and Green and Johnson, S. A. E., will furnish the formidable opposition. This contest will probably be decided today.

Tennis Moves Slowly

The rainy days have slowed the tennis engagements considerably, but the contest has advanced as far as the fourth bracket in the singles, doubles and mixed doubles.

DO YOU INHALE?

Here goes
the last "sacred cow" in cigarette advertising!

INHALING has long been an "untouchable"... a subject taboo in the tobacco trade... a "sacred cow"! Why?... Because in every tobacco leaf—even the finest, the mildest—nature hides certain impurities which, when not removed, are unkind to delicate membranes!

And since, knowingly or unknowingly, we all inhale some part of the smoke from our cigarette—LuckyStrike developed that great scientific process which removes certain impurities.

Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? Remember—more than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

Styles in Fencing

Fencing for Delta Chi, J. A. Styles became the intramural champion of the spring fencing tournament at the university Wednesday night in the Mens gym. Second place went to Lawrence Herron, Delta Tau Delta, who has been a finalist in three out of the four tournaments and one time university champion.

Styles is a member of this semester's fencing class under Instructor Applebaum, and was a "dark horse" in the tournament. This boy certainly did not win on any freak. He fought and defeated the best that the tournament offered, including Horace Miner, who took third place. With time to develop better form, he will be hard to beat.

The following men won points for their fraternities: Styles, Delta Chi, 41 points; Herron, Delta Tau Delta, 24 points; Miner, Delta Tau Delta, 9 points; Emmerick, Phi Sigma Chi, 9 points; Cook, S. A. E., 5 points; Weddle, Sigma Chi, 5 points; Pickens, 5 points; Miller, Sigma Beta Xi, 3 points, and Boodie, S. A. E., 1 point. This gives Delta Chi the cup for a total of 42 points.

About 50 men participated and it is evidenced by the turn-out that fencing has become established as a favorite intramural sport, and in the future will be given more support by the student body. With the exception of a noticeable lack of judges in the first two or three rounds, the tournament was run off in fine order.

Since there are a large number of men participating in the annual fencing tournament and since this event is gaining in popularity with the student body, a satisfactory system of judging the contests should be employed. The honor system can not and will not work because many times the contestant himself can not tell whether or not a direct touch was made or refuses to acknowledge points. A number of competent judges certainly would vastly improve the intramural fencing tournament.

Diamond Ball

Stoll field and Woodland Park diamonds have been extremely busy during the last three weeks. Division 1 and Division 2 have completed all of their games with Sigma Chi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon winner and runner-up respectively.
